'A Comanche Evening' Slated for October 20th

The Gaines County Pioneer Re-Enactment Committee will host "A Comanche Evening" Saturday, Oct. 20, at 7:30 p.m. on the grounds of the Gaines County Museum, 702 Hobbs Highway.

The gathering will begin with dedication of the Quanah Parker Trail arrow and the Jammey Huggins sculpture, "Wind Spirit."

The arrow is in front of the museum, and the sculpture will be in the lobby of the museum.

Following the presentations, guests will enjoy authentic Comanche hors d'oeuvres prepared by Lois Wise, Gaines County Agent, and have the opportunity to tour the museum.

At dusk, local authors Chuck and Linda George will present a dramatic reading of "The Comanche," based on a 2003 book Chuck authored.

It will be illustrated with pictures taken by Terry Jeffries, both from the book and from his own collection.

The public is invited to the free event.
